Kaiser Ritter Partner further strengthens its Board of Directors

- Christian de Juniac (57), a Senior Partner at Boston Consulting Group for many years and the head of its global wealth and asset management business for over a decade, has been elected to the Board of Directors of Kaiser Ritter Partner Holding. He will head the group's Strategy area and joins the Business Development Committee.

Vaduz, 16 June 2010 – "With the election of Christian de Juniac, we welcome another internationally respected expert to our group," said Fritz Kaiser, Executive Chairman of Kaiser Ritter Partner Group. "His experience in strategy and in asset and wealth management, as well as his network of contacts will help us seize the opportunities created by global change in the financial services market more quickly and more successfully for both our clients and the company. We are now very well set up in terms of the composition of our Board."

Christian de Juniac worked at Boston Consulting Group for 28 years, 20 of these as partner. He founded the international consultancy firm's Global Asset Management and Private Banking Group and led it for more than ten years. He has worked in many countries, including the UK, the USA and Switzerland, as well as in Asia, especially China and India.

He studied law at Cambridge (UK) and at the Université de Paris, and started his career as a tax lawyer in London. He also earned an MBA with Distinction from Harvard Business School in Boston.

Christian de Juniac: "Kaiser Ritter Partner is in an excellent position to continue its successful development as an international trustee and asset management services group. I am proud to be joining the eminent figures on the Board and look forward to making a significant contribution."

The membership of Kaiser Ritter Partner Holding Anstalt's Board of Directors is currently as follows:

- Fritz Kaiser, Executive Chairman
- Otmar Hasler, former Head of Liechtenstein's Government
- Philip Marcovici, international tax expert, formerly Senior Partner at Baker & McKenzie
- Peter Wagner, formerly Chairman of Vontobel Group
- Christian de Juniac, formerly Senior Partner at Boston Consulting Group.

About Kaiser Ritter Partner

Kaiser Ritter Partner helps wealthy private clients and their advisors from all over the world protect and grow their assets over the long term. The group's guiding principle is to understand its clients' needs holistically, keep the bigger picture in mind and exercise as much foresight as possible. Kaiser Ritter Partner includes a Liechtenstein private bank, and a leading fiduciary company (founded 1931), as well as an SEC-registered unit created in 2009 especially to look after US clients. Kaiser Ritter Partner maintains an international network of experts and in recent years has successfully made a name for itself in key areas such as tax compliance and responsible investing. Based in Vaduz and Zollikon (Zurich), the group currently employs 240 people. Fritz Kaiser heads the group as Executive Chairman of the holding company; Peter Wagner (previously Chairman of the Vontobel banking group) is Chairman of Kaiser Ritter Partner Privatbank; and Philip Marcovici (former Senior Partner at global legal firm Baker & McKenzie) is a member of the Boards of Directors of the holding company and the group's Trust Division. Otmar Hasler, the former Prime Minister of the Principality of Liechtenstein, joined the group as a Partner and a Member of the Board of Directors of the holding company in June 2009. The most recent addition to the holding company's Board of Directors is Christian de Juniac, previously a Senior Partner at Boston Consulting.
